Words of Wisdom

Last week's question:

April 16th is the feast day of St. Drogo of Sebourg. What is he the patron saint of? (Hint: people flocked to see him!)

Answer:

St. Drogo is the patron of shepherds. He was a skilled herdsman who could read the weather and knew how to cure animals of their ills, knowledge he passed along to whomever inquired about his work. Later in life, he became a hermit and was widely known for his prayers and counseling.

This week's question:

When the celebrant at Mass (or the deacon assisting him) adds a small amount of water to the wine in the chalice at the Offertory, what prayer does he quietly recite?
